Freedom of Information Act

The Council currently follow the mandatory provisions within the model publication scheme for Parish Councils under this Act. However this is currently under review by Arrington Parish Council with the aim of including non mandatory information.

E-mail Addresses

All e-mail addresses given on this site are routinely protected from 'harvesting' by external collection programs.

Website Standards

Every effort is made to keep the Arrington Parish Council website suitable for visitors of any age. If you find a link with content deemed unsuitable for family viewing, it would be appreciated if you could contact us and the offending link will be removed immediately.

Please contact The Clerk (details above) if you have any concerns about anything on the Arrington Parish Council website. Please give details of the web page and the item that causes you concern.

Website Privacy

Unless clearly stated otherwise (possibly on forms and surveys) the Arrington Parish Council website does not generate 'cookies' that gather personal information about you.

However, as with most other web sites, when you access these web pages, certain information will automatically be recorded by our hosting service on our behalf. This information may include your IP address, browser type, time and date of access, web pages viewed and information relating to the site you last visited. Such information is not routinely accessed by the Council. The information recorded is automatically processed for general analysis of web site usage and preparation of non-specific statistical reports (which are only seen by those who have a legitimate need to know). Arrington Parish Council consider personal data from automated collection systems to be confidential and any information relating to individuals will not be published, distributed or passed to third parties.

Complaints

Complaints regarding the accuracy of information or any infringement of copyright on the website should initially be sent to The Clerk (details above).

If the matter remains unresolved, your complaint should then be sent to the Parish Clerk to the Parish Council (contact details as above).

Disclaimer

Arrington Parish Council uses reasonable efforts to include and update information on this website. It does not however, make any representation as to its accuracy or completeness. All information is given in good faith and no responsibility can be accepted for errors. Arrington Parish Council, and other parties and individuals involved in creating and delivering this website's contents are not liable for any damages arising from use of this site.

Links from this site to other sites do not imply any endorsement either of the website supplier or the content of the external site, and the Parish Council carries no responsibility for the accuracy of any information on the site concerned.
